

CAREER CONSULTING

Job change or career move

You want more success and professional satisfaction?

What is your situation? Change of occupation, career move, return to work, better work-life-balance, more success and professional satisfaction?

Program content and goals

Based on a Situation Analysis we will support you in achieving your own professional goal.

- Analysis of your professional situation
- Discussing the changes and challenges in your job / function
- Discussing your needs and your values
- You receive a professional Situation Analysis
- You are aware of your potential and your strengths
- You have a clear career strategy
- You have modern, convincing application documents
- You assert yourself better against your competition
- You can communicate better in the sense of "self-marketing" (strategy & tactics)
- You perform confidently
- You benefit from our leadership and management experience

You may participate in all our input-events and workshops.