

EXECUTIVE PROGRAMS

So that you are one step ahead

Would you like to have greater success and more joy in your job?

The labor market's requirements and opportunities are constantly changing. In both our executive programs, we will analyze your potential, needs, and values, and align them with the needs of your current and/or future roles.

Together, we discuss and implement the risks, opportunities, and actions needed to help you stay one step ahead of the others.

With the Leadership Competence program you improve your leadership and management competences.

The Career Move program prepares you for career advancement.

Leadership Competence

For more joy and success in your job

You are about to take on a leadership role, have already taken on a new leadership role or have special challenges in your current role. You want to improve your leadership and management.

You want to

- Reflect your actions with a sparring partner
- Define career goals, and
- Actively tackle challenges.

Together with you, we create a tailor-made program and develop measures for your practical leadership and management work and help you to implement them. We check your success with the discussed measures continuously.

The goal is to consolidate or even expand the current position and to tackle changes confidently.

The Leadership Competence Program is tailored to your individual needs and wishes.

Career Move

It's time for the next career move

The job market is in constant change. This results in career opportunities that you should use.

You have professional achievements and are ready for a career move.

With many years of experience in executive consulting, we know the factors for success in leadership and management. The goal is to further develop your leadership and communication skills and to initiate the next career move in a targeted manner.

In this program, we will match your potential, needs, and values with the requirements of the desired career stage. We will develop specific measures with you and show you ways to reach your career goal.

The Career Move program is tailored to your individual needs and wishes.
