

Cédric Fankhauser

Growing up in Basel, I gained my first professional experience in commerce, IT and transport. At the age of 26, I founded my own company, which after only a few years was one of the leading recruitment consultancy firms in Basel. At the same time, I obtained the eidg. Specialist certificate as a marketing expert. Eight years later, I sold Jobboxx AG to study business administration at FHBB.

After graduating in the subjects of controlling/finance and e-business, I worked as a finance and administration manager in the public administration for the canton of Basel-Landschaft for seven years. During this time I completed the Master's program in Administrative Law at the Law Faculty of the University of Basel. After that, I was responsible for 280 people as Deputy Managing Director and Head of the Service Center in a non-profit organization in Zurich for nearly three years.

With the change to Mangold KarriereManagement AG in 2015, the circle has closed and today I use my experience as an entrepreneur, head hunter, personnel consultant and executive to individually advise employees on their reorientation. Here I have made the experience that changes - brought about from the outside or initiated by oneself - lead to a greater job satisfaction and more success. Personally, therefore, in change I see the potential to achieve greater things.